ORAL JUDGEMENT

This C.R.A. is filed against an interlocutory order by which the trial Court has rejected the amendment application given by the petitioner in execution application No.3/1995. The learned advocate Mr D.D.Vyas who is appearing for the respondents-opponents states that original application itself is decided by the Court and this petition has become infructuous. Since execution proceedings are terminated by the executing court, this civil revision application is required to be disposed of as having become infructuous. The same is accordingly disposed of. Rule is discharged.
